

Hospital Auxiliary Launches Another Year

At The Helm

Activities of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary for the year 1969-70 will be directed by these new officers, who were installed in a candle-light ceremony Wednesday at a luncheon at Los Verdes Country Club. Mrs. Arthur Grayson, retiring president, and Sister M. Terrence conducted the ceremony. New officers are, from left, Mmes. Robert

Lauterjung, president; Herschel Kopp, first vice-president; John Kennedy, second vice-president; Joe Kern, third vice-president; Edwin Thomas, standing in for Darlene Payne, recording secretary; Tim McMillan, corresponding secretary; John Ohlson, treasurer, and Luke Jacobs, financial secretary. (Press-Herald Photos)

4,000 Hour Service Awards

After chalking up 4,000 hours of volunteer service at the Little Company of Mary Hospital, two auxiliary members were presented with their service pins at the auxiliary's installation luncheon. Sister Terrence presents the pins to Mmes. Agnes Morgan and Helen Sims. Mrs. Arthur Grayson, retiring president, was given her 6,000 hour pin.

Check for Hospital

Retiring after completing two years as president of the hospital auxiliary, Mrs. Arthur Grayson presents a generous check to Sister M. Terrence.

Volunteer Of the Year

Chosen as the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary's "Volunteer of the Year" was Mrs. Helene Roevens who was paid a special tribute at the installation luncheon. Here, Mrs. Arthur Grayson, retiring president, presents a bouquet of roses to Mrs. Roevens as Sister Mary Terrence looks on.

Shower of Dollars

Dollars for their scholarship fund to enable the South Bay Panhellenic Association to award grants to local coeds will be the purpose of the group's luncheon on Feb. 6 at Los Verdes Country Club. Dreaming of a "shower of dollars" are members, from left, top row, Mmes. James O'Brien and Sid Semon; front, Mmes. William Kraemer and James Morrow. (Press-Herald Photo)

Panhellenic Association

Scholarship Event

"Dollars for Scholars" will be the goal Feb. 6 when South Bay Panhellenic Association stages its annual fund raising luncheon at the Los Verdes Country Club on Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Members and guests will hear Dean Nola Stark of UCLA discuss "Cultural Hangups and the Man on the Moon." Dr. Stark is dean of women and associate dean of student services on the Westwood campus.

Valentine hearts and flowers will decorate tables for the luncheon, which will be preceded by an 11:30 a.m. social hour.

General chairman is Mrs. E. L. Scofield, Jr., Palos Verdes Estates. She is assisted by Mmes. Dane Lones, Palos

Those attending will have the opportunity to receive a trip to the Hacienda in Las Vegas and an original oil painting by a local artist.

All proceeds from the luncheon will go towards Panhellenic's scholarship fund. In 1968 the group awarded three $200 grants to local coeds.

Winners in 1968 were Misses Claire Chandler, Redondo Beach, attending UCLA; Virginia Schwartz, Manhattan Beach, Chico State; and Leslie Libbea, Torrance, San Diego State.

Press-Herald Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1969

B-1

Jaycettes To Honor Mothers

Whether she came from Ireland, south-of-the-border, deep in the heart of Texas or wherever, mothers will be "queen for the day" at the luncheon to be given by the Torrance Jaycettes Saturday aboard the Princess Louise. Each mother, or guest substituting for a mother, will be presented with a corsage and will be entertained at a fashion show with Jaycettes modeling resort wear. Mrs. M. Derouin is in charge of the show and on the committee for the luncheon event are Mmes. J. Hiday, K. Lingo and J. Simkins. Crowning their "queens" for the annual event are left, Mmes. William Ritchie, choosing her mother-in-law, Mrs. Dorothy Ritchie, and Mrs. John Dunbar with her mother, Mrs. Paul Bennett. (Press-Herald Photo)